Chocolate Cake Recipe

Chocolate Cake. It's moist and fudgy and will keep well for 4-5 days.

Ingredients For the cake:

225 g / 8 oz plain flour
350g / 12½oz caster sugar
85g/3oz cocoa powder
1½ tsp baking powder
1½ tsp bicarbonate of soda
2 eggs
250ml milk
125ml vegetable oil
2 tsp vanilla extract
250ml boiling water

Ingredients For the chocolate icing:

200g/ plain chocolate
200ml double cream

preparation method

1. Preheat the oven to 180C/350F/Gas 4. Grease and line two 20cm/8i sandwich tins.
2. For the cake, place all of the cake ingredients, except the boiling water, into a large mixing bowl.
3. Using a wooden spoon, or electric whisk, beat the mixture until smooth and well combined.
4. Add the boiling water to the mixture, a little at a time, until smooth. (The cake mixture will now be very liquid.)
5. Divide the cake batter between the sandwich tins and bake in the oven for 25-35 minutes, or until the top is firm to the touch and a skewer inserted into the centre of the cake comes out clean.
6. Remove the cakes from the oven and allow to cool completely, still in their tins, before icing.
7. For the chocolate icing, heat the chocolate and cream in a saucepan over a low heat(double boiler) until the chocolate melts. Remove the pan from the heat and whisk the mixture until smooth, glossy and thickened.
8. Set aside to cool for 1-2 hours, or until thick enough to spread over the cake.
9. To assemble the cake, run a round-bladed knife around the inside of the cake tins to loosen the cakes.
10. Carefully remove the cakes from the tins. Spread a little chocolate icing over the top of one of the chocolate cakes, then carefully top with the other cake.
11. Transfer the cake to a serving plate and ice the cake all over with the chocolate icing, using a palette knife.

MANPESAR CHA SANN – IMMACULATE CONCEPTION CHURCH, BORIVALI

This Village East Indian Community Festival continues year after year at IC Church, Borivali popularly called Manpesar Cha Sann.

- The Church structure traces its origin back to the fifteenth century, a monument with an historical and national significance. Besides the present Church building are the Mandapeshwar caves which date back to around the year 750-850AD
- A Franciscan missionary was the founder of this Church in 1547. By October 1548, a number of locals were baptized and a 'devout hermitage' was started at Mount Poinisur.
- Around 1630 there were around 1500 parishioners in the Gaothans of Mount Poinisur, Dhainsa (Dahisar), Canary (Kanhari), Simpor and Cassor. Around this time the name of the Church was changed to Our Lady of Immaculate Conception from Our Lady of Piety
- The Village Festival is celebrated on the Sunday after the Church feast day on 8 December
- The Local East Indian Community and from all East Indian Gaothans come in large numbers, following a tradition passed down over the centuries that has seen this Church as a centre for pilgrimage
- The Village Fair and the Reklas of our community are an added attraction at this Feast like at all other East Indian Village Festivals
- The Kosau Mauli Manpesar Cultural & Welfare Association has organized their 1st East Indian Singing Competition on Sunday 17th December 2017 at 5.00 p.m. sharp at Concescao Grounds.

MGP Gears up to Organize the first-ever Mega Christmas Festival for Maharashtra

Gleason Barretto, Old Kurla Gaothan

Unity is one of the most important needs of the Community in today's scenario across the world. With terrorism and divisions by political groups there is an urgent need for like-minded people to come together irrespective of caste, creed or religion. The World wants Peace and Christmas is the best Festival to spread this message.

The East Indian Gaothans are colourful and vibrant every Christmas with Cribs, Stars, Lights and Decorations on every bylane. The celebration is generally within homes or within the Pakhadis(Hamlets) in the Gaothans. In recent years local associations have done a good job in organizing Christmas Parties for Children and Christmas Competitions to bring all Gaothan residents together. The Celebration needs to go steps further to be organized on a State and Country level. We need to take our community festival to a bigger platform which gave birth to this big initiative.

To fulfil the objective of Peace and Unity, MGP has initiated a Christmas Festival with the Sarvajanik theme. There is a great connect with the Sarvajanik Ganeshotav and our community as Kaka Baptista, a close confidante of Lokmanya Tilak actively helped in organizing the Sarvajanik Festival. Keeping this in mind we planned to organize the first-ever Sarvajanik Krist Janmotsav dedicated to Kaka Baptista. The Sarvajanik initiative decades ago was not just about celebration but more about a Movement to come together and create an effective network.

This being the first time we are organizing the Festival, we will start on a small note and lay a foundation to make this festival grow each passing year. There are 4 activities planned this year:

1. Groups organizing events or making Cribs to confirm their association with the Janmotsav
2. Maharashtra Church Crib Competition(Indoor and Outdoor)
3. Gaothan Competitions - Crib and Best Decorated Gaothan
4. Special Online Sarvajanik Krist Janmotsav Quiz

The activities lined up will help us spread the message of Peace and Unity. We expect thousands to be a part of this festival. The Christmas Festival today is celebrated by all irrespective of their religions. With this we plan to encourage all to participate and support in our vision of a United India. All these years we celebrated Christmas events or made Cribs on a local level and with this initiative we plan to make it more vibrant to create an Effective Network of Unity.

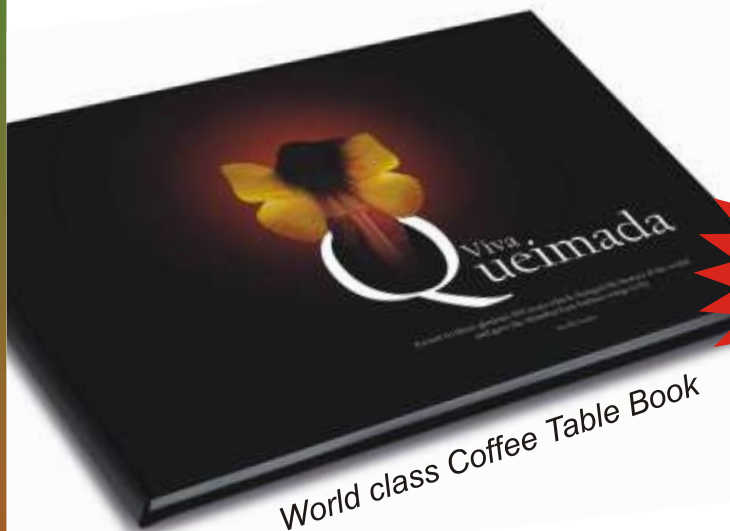

This idea was shared in MGP's meet with the Chief Minister, Devendra Fadnavis and he appreciated this plan. Also the Sarvajanik festival with our Freedom Fighter, Kaka Baptista in the forefront gives this a fitting platform for those who have forgotten our leader.

As MGP gets set to inaugurate the Sarvajanik Krist Janmotsav in a small way for the first time we look forward to your support and prayers. We are sure that if we get the support of our community we can grow each passing year and make the festival an exemplary of Unity and Peace. Wishing you a Joyous Christmas and a Peaceful New Year 2018.
