MY BROTHER, FR JUDE

Roger C B Pereira

We were exactly 10 years apart. He was born in 1929. I, in 1939. More than that, I might as well confess, he was my role model! I recited the same poems that he did at School Elocution Competitions – 10 years later! But there was one big difference: according to the staff at St. Stanislaus', he was a model school student. I was, probably, the opposite! Similarly, by birth, we were both born Scorpions. And, whilst I am almost a typical Scorpion, he was the opposite!

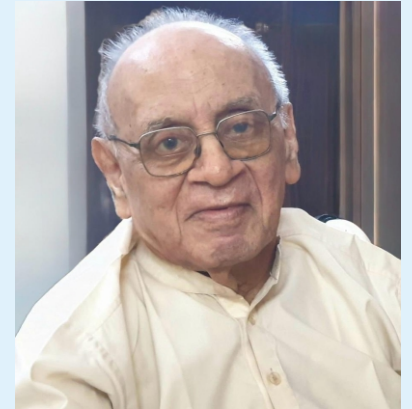

I possibly took to the stage, following in Jude's footsteps. Bandra had a very vibrant Theatre and Debating movement, in his time. There was Hyginus Correa, Roland Cardoz, Reggie Coelho, Aloy Gomes, Melville Mendes et al. And the Playwright cum Director was Dr Artie Pereira. Make-up by Josie Mendes and later, Roque Drego.

The debates were almost always at the Bandra Gymkhana. Every month. And in Ranwar, every week at the home of the Mendes! The host? Edward Mendes Sr. I guess this was a forerunner of the popular Zonals that were launched in 1950 for Athletics and in 1952 for Talent.

When Jude was at Xavier's for his B.A. and M.A., his contemporaries and friends also included the much-admired Bobby (Sultan) Padamsee, Gerson and Sylvester da Cunha, Farrokh Mehta, Pheroza Cooper et al. But unlike me, Jude stayed with the Bandra stage of St Andrew's High School!

When Jude joined the Seminary on June 13, 1952, it seemed like the end of the world for me. I got inexplicably ill for 2 whole months. Poor Dr Henriques was at his wits end trying to get me back on my feet. No luck! What helped was that every second Sunday, was Visiting Sunday. First at Parel. And then, at Bandra.

Whilst at the Seminary, Jude continued his love for the theatre: acting, directing and producing plays for fellow Seminarians. But what was he like as a priest? I have received a series of tributes from bishops, fellow priests, former parishioners. Even from a non-Catholic, who had never even met him! At his Funeral Mass, Archbishop John in his sermon, Bishop Dominic Savio in his eulogy and Dr Luzito de Souza shared nuggets that even we as family members were not aware of! (for those interested, it's available on YouTube).

Fr Jude S. Pereira

FR JUDE PEREIRA - TRIBUTE FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE OF BOMBAY

“Becoming a priest,” says Father Jude, “came naturally.” His sincere love for the Eucharist, even as a youth, was reflected in his service as an altar boy and attendance at daily Mass. Even before.

His own foundation in faith was, therefore, reinforced as he dedicatedly built a strong foundation for others. It is no wonder that the call of Jeremiah and Isaiah resonate so strongly with him.

Armed with a Bachelor's Degree in Education, a love for teaching scripture and new methods to teach it, he set to work and his achievements are now legacies.

He was the first to take the audio-visual route to communicate the faith in a lively and modern manner, travelling from parish to parish with his own equipment and so realising his dream to make the faith come alive. Fr Jude was also instrumental in changing the way Catechism and Confirmation classes were held and for this we must thank a dramatic encounter!

On his return from higher studies in Rome, and brimming over with ideas for catechesis, he visited one of the parish churches and knelt down on one of the rear pews to pray. It so happened that an elderly priest was taking Confirmation class in the church, and he wielded a cane to enforce his teaching!! That was when Fr Jude realised that if youth are to be guided to love the church, it would have to be done through lively interaction, through question and answer, through the wholehearted involvement of the priest. He promptly instituted training for the trainers.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation and the direction of souls hold a special place in Fr Jude's heart; he has spent many hours in the confessional and has been a confessor for generations. From this experience, counselling flows naturally and he offers guidance to anyone who seeks.

“A priest is not just a man for others, he is another Christ,” he tells us, “This is the beauty of priesthood.”
We agree with you, Father Jude!

DARRYL DMONTE EAST INDIAN NEWS MAKERS OF THE YEAR - SEQUEIRA BROTHERS

The story of the Sequeira Brothers is one of faith, devotion, and artistic mastery carried forward through four generations. It began with Michael Sequeira, a gifted carpenter and sculptor whose remarkable work - including the intricate Face of Jesus crafted during Lent in the early 1920s, laid the foundation of a legacy rooted in sacred art.

After his passing in 1965, his sons continued this vision, dedicating their lives to crafting, restoring, and preserving religious statues and altars for churches across Mumbai and beyond. Their sculptures have since reached churches and institutions across the USA, UK, Spain, Italy, Scotland, Bahrain, Qatar, Australia, Papua New Guinea, and throughout India.

Today, the Sequeira Brothers carry this mission forward through significant altar and restoration work, with recent projects at Our Lady of Grace Church, Mount Mary Basilica, St. Andrew's Church, and major sites in Goa, Daman, and Silvassa.

What began with one man's devotion has grown into a timeless tradition of faith and artistry, with the Sequeira Brothers standing as custodians of a sacred heritage—preserving the beauty of the Church for generations, and ensuring their work continues to inspire long after words fall silent.

Ingrid and Neil Creado - Juhu

We are very honoured and grateful for your invitation to every function that you have for MGP. To all of you I would like to say a few words in continuation of what I said on the microphone at St Andrews Auditorium yesterday.

The three MGP founder members have created history for the entire East Indian Community. Something that was never thought of or even done for many decades. The last journal of the East Indian Community was printed in 1937 on the occasion of the Golden Jubilee giving details of names of personalities in the Community, sometimes of family members also and who they were, what they had achieved in life and done for the East Indian Community in various villages and towns of Bombay and the suburbs

Today many members of the Community, especially the younger generation, have moved out from their ancestral homes, have studied diligently and have established their own firms and businesses and have become renowned entrepreneurs not only in Bombay but in various districts towns cities and even abroad. And despite this change you have diligently located resident EIs in many Countries to represent the Community, contact East Indians in various towns, engage with them, endeavour to discover their stories and do your utmost to get the whole Community together regardless of Country, County or work ethic and constantly reminding all of us in your texts, your functions and your get-togethers of our very special ancestry and heritage and history and who and what we are, connecting all of us in one grand global body to get us together to get to know each other and to assist one other in all our endeavours...

Every one of these gatherings brings out the best in them on the stage. You acclaim and present them with a token for their achievements, get people together, arrange East Indian Music Bands, East Indian food, umbrellas, shirts, lugras, calendars, an East Indian dictionary, etc...

And now you have set out about 52 new Ventures which you plan to make operative in the near future::

MGP connections with banks, EI Natekar for marriages, our religious and other customs such as marriage and EI music EISTA, EI food, the Kaka Baptista museum, sports, Business Council, our very talented Village Bands, your outreach to EIs abroad, our EI village Gaotans, etc.

What a wonderful vision...

Ingrid and I are genuinely enthused and delighted to be part of this amazing revival of the East Indian Community. We are confident that all three of you and your dedicated Team will be immensely successful in every one of your endeavours for the EI Community

We hope and pray that this history ancestry and legacy customs and language will be inculcated and preserved and handed down to generation after generation and kept alive, vibrant and healthy for many centuries. And it is for each one of us in the community to support you in any manner that we can to achieve our East Indian Community objectives

May the Lord bless each one of you abundantly and give you the strength the courage and the determination and provide the wherewithal to continue your wonderful journey for this Community

Stay well and safe

EICA 2025 - Focus on Education, Service & Religious Traditions

Gleason Barretto, Old Kurla

Selfless service to the society is one of the biggest highlights of the East Indian Community for generations. East Indian Community Awards is MGP's initiative to appreciate and honour community members who have been of great service across social, charitable, civic, professional, Entrepreneurial, religious & heritage platforms. Sylvester D'Souza who was named the East Indian of the Year 2025 is a true example of service to society across the education, social, civic, political & the East Indian Community. MGP Team focuses on being of selfless service to the East Indian Community & Gaothans through the 50+ MGP projects. For centuries & decades the East Indian Community was known for dedicated support to the Archdiocese & Maharashtra state but sadly we have not been acknowledged for our great contributions.

Education is the core factor if we want our community to grow to greater heights. ACP Mamta Lawrence D'Souza specified the importance of creating awareness for higher studies especially mentorship for IAS examinations. Warren Fernandes through New Zealand Education Advisors Ltd has launched the NZEA MGP Education fund to support potential and needy students in our community who wish to study in New Zealand. MGP's Shikshan project strives to create awareness about higher education and career opportunities and a renewed strategy and action plan is being worked out. The East Indian Community Fund initiated by MGP supports needy school & college children with financial support towards fees and education needs.

Religious traditions should be revived & restored in the Indigenous East Indian Way. The current trend is the toning down, change or cancellation of our traditional ancestral religious practices. The community hymns sung at special feasts have been restricted or stopped being sung with the support of clergy and lay heads. Procession routes are being changed or discontinued with unjustified reasons by the Parish council. The situation overall for indigenous people religious traditions in terms of language, practices, heritage & history is a concern and it's time we as a community address these issues with likeminded clergy and lay heads. On the religious side, MGP awarded Fr Peter Dcunha, Fr Andrew Rodrigues & Mount Mary's Basilica for their Initiatives & projects.

Vibrant Gaothan initiatives to protect and preserve our native residential areas is a must today. The eyes of builders and politicians is on our Gaothans and various unjust schemes like SRA are being targeted at us. MGP will review and focus on the drafts for the Gaothan Development Policy, Gaothan Housing Policy, East Indian Samaj Archdiocese - EISA Policy, Mumbai Bhumi Putra Policy & Gaothan Restoration Plan along with like minded community members included in the MGP Advisory board. By 2026 year end, MGP plans to have 100+ advisors across sections like professionals, entrepreneurs, activists & religious. Meetings across with political leaders and government authorities will be lined up to resolve the long standing issues of the East Indian Community and Gaothans.

Influential Community leaders need to be projected as an inspiration or as role model. MGP will work on initiative to achieve this objective to connect with those who can help us make a difference to the community. Many of our award recipients over the last 15 years have excelled and continue to reach great heights. While they are hard pressed on time, we will try to request them to sacrifice sometime for the community. Our international team will also be activated to get us advisory connects to build a better future for our community. We will appeal to our community members not to forget their roots and the culture practiced by their ancestors for generations.

Community markets and business platforms will encourage entrepreneurship which needs a dedicated approach to uplift and empower potential members. East Indian Business Council (EIBCo) will be reviewed and revived to promote and mentor interested entrepreneurs to launch startups. A team to plan strategy for community members to take more business initiatives will be announced. The cultural space for business themed on lugras and imitation jewellery is a welcome inclusion and we will appeal for healthy competition. The East Indian Baazaar concept has grown over the year and we plan to take it to the next level. Mobai Gaothan Store is yet to get active and efforts will be made to revive it across all models - online and outlets.

Entertainment through social events can help bridge the gap amongst our community and unite us in celebration. East Indian social events get an impressive response and efforts to get this same response for community issues will be taken. MGP plans to revive and promote all its entertainment themed projects like YouTube channel, music awards, food festival & East Indian day. Local groups play an important role with their annual social get-togethers and this needs to be preserved for future generations. Government support will be sought for promoting culture on the city, state and national level. Archdiocese will be requested to support all groups that approach to organise East Indian themed events. The year 2026 will be an interesting year for MGP as we enter our 16th year with loads of initiatives and projects for the betterment of the East Indian Community. The core mission will continue to be promotion and preservation of East Indian language, Culture, Tradition, Heritage, History, Existence and Identity. Your prayers and support will surely make a difference.

East Indians celebrate Agera harvest festival

FPJ News Service
MUMBAI

East Indians, one of Mumbai's indigenous communities, celebrated Agera, their annual harvest festival, on Sunday.

In places like Gorai and Manori, where the community still preserves its agricultural and fishing traditions, the festival was marked with processions carrying a holy cross to a paddy field where the priest cut a few sheaves of paddy waiting to be harvested. In churches located in the city, the celebrations were organised with paddy brought from the villages.

People dressed in traditional attire, accompanied by a traditional brass band, carried bundles of paddy to church for a blessing. The families go back home and affix the paddy on their entrance door or place it on the altar, followed by a traditional meal and thanksgiving prayer, said Gleason Barretto, founder trustee of Mobai Gaothan Panchayat, a community association reviving traditions that were fading away.

MGP IN THE NEWS - MIDDAY

Wednesday, 8th October 2025 - Page 4

The Mobai Gaothan Panchayat (MGP) is working to promote the Agera festival, a harvest festival celebrated by the East Indian community in Mumbai. This year, the festival saw bigger celebrations across various local parishes and groups.

MGP's Goals:

- Increase Awareness: MGP aims to increase awareness about Agera beyond the East Indian community, targeting prominent English and Marathi newspapers for coverage.
- Community Engagement: They appeal to like-minded individuals and groups to support their plan and help spread the word about Agera.

How to Get Involved:

- Feedback and Suggestions: You can share your suggestions and feedback with MGP via WhatsApp on 9820545302 or email at mgpmobai@gmail.com.

The MGP's efforts are part of a larger movement to preserve and promote the cultural heritage of Mumbai's indigenous communities, including the East Indians. By celebrating Agera and other festivals, MGP aims to raise awareness about the community's history, culture, and contributions.

Special thanks to all parishes and groups who promoted and celebrated Agera this year.

Harvest celebrations across the city

THE East Indian community in Mumbai celebrated the 2025 edition of Agera, a native Harvest Festival on October 5. The celebration featured over 140 Gaothans, over 30 villages, and more than five lakh members of the Catholic community. Agera is celebrated to showcase the rich cultural heritage of our community. It was held across Mumbai, including in Bandra, Kandivli, Thane and Vasai. This diast learned from Alphi D'Souza, chief of the Mobai Gaothan Panchayat, who facilitated the festival. "There is a procession where people, with a priest, fetch paddy from fields, and take it back to their nearest churches to the priest, as a form of gratitude for the harvest."

Now, name game for city airport

FPJ News Service
MUMBAI

With the state government deciding to name the Navi Mumbai International Airport after late local leader DB Patil, there is a demand to rename the domestic terminal of the Mumbai airport after freedom fighter Joseph Baptista, a member of the East Indian community, one of the original inhabitants of the city.

The East Indians have pointed out parallels in the story behind the acquisition of land for the two airports. The Navi Mumbai airport was constructed on land acquired from Agris, Kolis, and other castes. Similarly, the Mumbai airport was built on farmland belonging to East Indians who are converts to Roman Catholicism from the same castes.

Baptista, popularly known as Kaka Baptista, an associate of Lokmanya Tilak, served as the city's mayor and as a lawyer in the Bombay High Court. Vicky Misquitta, of Mobai Gaothan Panchayat's Mumbai East Indian Bhumiputra Rights project, said by renaming one of the two terminals of the airport after Baptista, the government can pay a fitting tribute to an unsung hero and acknowledge the contributions of the East Indian community to the city's development, including giving up their ancestral land for the airport and the University of Mumbai's Kalina campus.

"The East Indian community has a rich history, and their ancestral lands, including those at the Mumbai airport, are a testament to their significant contributions to the city as indigenous people of the city. The 7/12 extracts serve as proof of their ownership and connection to the land," said Misquitta.

Alphi D'Souza, MGP chief, whose family once owned land where the Mumbai airport was built, said they commended the Navi Mumbai Agri community's efforts to name the Navi Mumbai airport after late DB Patil and urged the authorities to consider the immense value Kaka Baptista brought to the nation's struggle for independence.

Top 5 reasons why Santacruz Domestic Airport should be named after Kaka Baptista

- Freedom Fighter Legacy: Kaka Baptista was a prominent freedom fighter and close associate of Lokmanya Tilak, playing a pivotal role in India's struggle for independence. He was also a key figure in the Home Rule Movement, advocating for self-government in India.
- Unsung Hero: Despite his significant contributions, Baptista remains an unsung hero, deserving recognition for his unwavering commitment to the cause of freedom. Naming the airport after him would be a fitting tribute to his legacy.

- Community Representation: The East Indian community, to which Baptista belonged, has a rich history and significant contributions to Mumbai's growth and development. Renaming the airport after him would acknowledge the community's sacrifices, including giving up ancestral land for urban development projects.

- Leadership and Service: Baptista served as the Mayor of Bombay Municipal Corporation in 1925 and worked tirelessly for the betterment of society. He also successfully pushed for reforms allowing tax-paying tenants to cast their vote in municipal elections.

- Inspirational Figure: As a lawyer and labor leader, Baptista inspired generations with his courage and conviction. He defended notable figures like Tilak and Vinayak Damodar Savarkar, and his legacy continues to inspire people today. Naming the airport after him would inspire future generations to learn about his life and contributions.

The Announcements for the East Indian Community

MGP requests renaming Santacruz Domestic Airport after Kaka Baptista Bhumiputra East Indian Samaj - Agera Harvest Festival release

The Mobai Gaothan Panchayat (MGP) paid tribute to the legendary freedom fighter Kaka Baptista on Kaka Baptista Memorial Day, September 18, 2025. On this occasion, MGP Core Team decided to demand that the Santacruz Domestic Airport in Mumbai be renamed in honor of Kaka Baptista, a stalwart from the East Indian Community.

The East Indian Community has a rich history, and their ancestral lands, including those in the Mumbai airport, are a testament to their significant contributions to the city as Indigenous People of Mumbai. The 7/12 extracts serve as proof of their ownership and connection to the land.

MGP commends the Aagri community's efforts to name the Navi Mumbai airport after DB Patil and urges the authorities to consider the immense value Kaka Baptista brought to the nation's struggle for independence.

Ten Highlights on Kaka Baptista:

Freedom Fighter Extraordinaire: Kaka Baptista played a pivotal role in India's fight for freedom.

East Indian Community Icon: He was a prominent figure in the East Indian Community, inspiring generations with his courage and conviction.

Contributions to Indian Independence: Kaka Baptista's efforts, alongside other freedom fighters like Veer Savarkar and Lokmanya Tilak, paved the way for India's independence.

Unwavering Commitment: His dedication to the cause of freedom was unwavering, making him a respected leader.

Legacy Lives On: Kaka Baptista's legacy continues to inspire people, especially the East Indian Community.

Unsung Hero: Despite his significant contributions, Kaka Baptista remains an unsung hero, deserving of recognition.

Inspiration for Future Generations: His life and achievements serve as a beacon of inspiration for future generations.

Symbol of Courage: Kaka Baptista's bravery in the face of adversity makes him a symbol of courage.

Community Leader: As a community leader, he worked tirelessly for the betterment of society.

Enduring Impact: His impact on Indian history is enduring, and his name deserves to be immortalized in the country's memory.

By renaming the Santacruz Domestic Airport after Kaka Baptista, the government can pay a fitting tribute to this unsung hero and acknowledge the significant contributions of the East Indian Community to Mumbai's growth and development.

MGP requests that the authorities consider this proposal and take necessary steps to honor Kaka Baptista's memory.

The press release was done on the occasion of Agera, the harvest festival of Mumbai's Bhumiputra East Indian Samaj. The community owned large tracts of land on the area which now occupies the Santacruz Domestic airport and the Sahar international airport. The lands were forcibly taken for the Second world war by the British with an assurance to be returned back which never happened.
